

Mrs. Hofmann's Weekly News

September 23, 2019

This Week's News:

Library officially began last week! Please have your child keep it in the special Library bag I have provided so that food/drinks do not spill on it! Help your child keep the book and Library bag in their backpack when they are not reading it. That way it will always be there when we go to the library. Let's try to get 100% of our library books returned on time!

Our school-wide at home reading incentive, Leap Into Literacy, begins in October. Look for the information and recording sheets that will be coming home in your child's homework folder next week.

Love,
Mrs. Hofmann
